  - 3 Running Areas of Focus by Essential Question:
    - How can we engage parents to ensure that they are clear on the changes that have and will be happening moving forward?
    - What about the beginning of the school year to prepare for the year?
    - To build partnerships with parents to work through difficult situations?
    - During the year, how can we engage parents midyear to support learning? To support joy?
- Connections to SIPs and District Mission Statement?
